Brief History and Present Status

Towards the end of the nineteenth century, a few far-sighted Carmelites thought of opening the doors of the Carmelite First Order, also to the sons and daughters of the Indian sub-continent. One of those who spear-headed this movement was Swiss-born Fr. Aloysius Benziger, who had joined the Belgian Carmelite Province. Thanks to the herculean efforts of such pioneers, the Belgians started at the beginning of the twentieth century, a novitiate open also to Indians who would like to share in the Teresian charism as members of the first Order. Soon the Malabar Province was prepared for autonomy. It included religious not only from Kerala, but also from Tamilnadu, Sri Lanka and Goa.

Bishop Aloysius Benziger himself, accompanied by Fr. Marie-Joseph, the first Goan Carmelite, visited Goa in 1938 - the third centenary of the martyrdom of Blessed Dionysius and Redemptus, and work was begun on the foundation of a monastery in Margao. Fr. Marie-Joseph was later associated with the founding of the Lar de santa Teresinha, which was restored to the Carmelites in 2009. In 1947, the Belgians proceeded to a new foundation in Mangaluru. Here, the Apostolic Carmel Sisters offered them hospitality for more than a year, and were a great support.

Shortly after Indian independence, the Carmelite Tertiaries of Manjummel applied for admission to the First Order of Discalced Carmelites. Their request was granted in 1957. By that date, Indian independence being won, the Belgian Fathers requested the Manjummel Province to absorb their Mangaluru foundation, while they continued in Goa till 1961. After Goa became part of the Indian union in 1961, the Margao community opted to join the Manjummel Province. By 1965, the Manjummel Province had three houses in the Karnataka-Goa region: Mangaluru, Margao, and Mysuru, founded that same year.

In 1965, too, the community in Mangaluru put up a vocation-home adjacent to the monastery, in order to foster vocations to our way of life. The results were quite encouraging. Whereas there were less than ten priests when we joined Manjummel, there were about thirty five at the end of the seventies. Fr. Gregory D'Souza who became one of the provincial councilors in 1978, initiated the process of obtaining autonomy for the Karnataka-Goa region, with the cooperation of the then provincial, Fr. Paulinus.

We must place on record our indebtedness to the Apostolic Carmel for their hospitality to the Belgian founding Fathers of Carmel Hill, and to the Malabar Province for the formation of the first candidates from the region. But we are especially grateful for the painstaking efforts of the Manjummel Province to prepare us for autonomy through the formation and education of so many of our priests and religious.

The Karnataka-Goa Province

On 12 March 1981, Father General Philip Sainz de Baranda, then on a pastoral visitation of the Order in India, established the Karnataka-Goa Province. This Province was intended to comprise of the civil states of Karnataka, Goa, Maharashtra and Gujarat, under the patronage of St. Teresa of Jesus.

After the first Provincial Chapter, in which Fr. Nemesio Alzola was elected Provincial, new foundations began to be added to the three already mentioned: Margao, Mangaluru and Mysuru. Since top priority had to be given to formation, suitable infrastructures had to be prepared for the several stages of formation and other perspectives, too, being kept in mind.

In 1982, foundations were accepted in Belur, Londa and Xellim. Two years later, during Fr. Nemesio's second term, a formation community was set up in Mapusa, and a parish was accepted in Mumbai at Dahisar. In 1985 our Mysuru foundation - Pushpashrama which had till then been a residence for our PUC students, was transformed into a philosophy college. The PUC students were shifted to Madanthyar in 1986

During the term of Fr. Joseph D'Souza as Provincial (1987-1990), the parish at Dahisar in the Bombay archdiocese, was exchanged for that of Mira Road, in 1988. And in 1990, a new foundation was made in Bengaluru. This, our tenth community, was the only one till then, that was neither a formation - house nor a parish.

Among the land-marks in the history of the Province, when Fr. Gregory was provincial (1990-1993), most noteworthy are the following: the Definitory General finally entrusted to our Province, the Tanzania Mission in Africa. Counter-balancing this great missionary venture was the inauguration in Mysuru of the Dhyanavana Institute of Spirituality, in 1993.

Another mission which our Fathers had been serving already for a long time, was that of Kuwait, where we continued to serve till 2010. The task of developing the Province was greatly supported and encouraged by the re-election of Fr. Charles Serrao became Definitor - general in 1991, and was re-elected Definitor in 1997. This has been a remarkable event in the history of our Province, and is just one of the many signs that in spite of everything, Providence is looking after us.

During the first triennium of Fr. Lawrence, a new foundation was made at Kushalnagar, with the view of transferring our novitiate to more quiet and tranquil surroundings. During the second triennium, at long last, a provincial headquarters was constructed for the Province in Bengaluru. Towards the end of the triennium, three new projects were on the way: one, in Ballari, the other, in Koteswar and an opening too was made at Benoni in the Diocese of Johannesburg South Africa for eventually setting up a retreat centre.

Fr. Joe Tauro, elected in the 1999 Chapter, steered our Province into the third millennium. Foundations had to be consolidated: assets and liabilities taken into account. The construction of structures paused a while in favour of the building up of persons and personnel. More attention was focused on the streamlining of the secretariat and on legal requirements and procedures in the drafting and maintenance of records and documents. Our students who had been doing theology only in the Mangalore seminary, were also sent to Bengaluru, Goa (Rachol) and Mumbai (Goregaon). The novitiate was transferred from Margao to Kushalnagar. Empoli, a parish community in Italy was a venture that opened up new horizons. Our Tanzanian mission was raised to the status of a Regional Vicariate in 2002. The new mission in Hoovinahadagalli - Ballari received a definite form as a well-established mission in North Karnataka. The Koteswar initiative too saw a new monastery built in place of a temporary shelter.

The first chapter of the current millennium saw Fr. Joe Tauro re-elected to the office of Provincial and presented with a programme that promised to ensure the prowess of this unit of our Carmelite family for many years to come. Two institutes of spirituality were opened. The first, a sister concern of Dhyanavana, 'Dhyana Sadhana' was raised on a site donated to us by the generosity of the Mysuru Cloistered Carmel. The second was 'Anubhav' at Mira

Road in Mumbai. Towards the end of the triennium, the Bengaluru Cloistered Carmel donated to us part of their land. Here we now have a small establishment for our 'DhyanaVana Publications'. In 2004, in another region where Carmelites had labored 200 years earlier, namely, Vadodara, our presence was renewed when Fr. Alwyn Aranha was installed in the Good Shepherd Minor Seminary.

With Fr. Dominic Vas at the steering wheel, the Karnataka-Goa Province glided smoothly into the SILVER JUBILEE of its accelerated existence. For a perpetual commemoration of the event, a web-site of the Province was launched in October 2006, while the scope of our communities in Jagalur, Shivamogga and Londa were defined more clearly and also broadened, with a CBSE school being inaugurated at one mission station, Ramnagar, under the enterprising leadership of Fr. Jerome Moras. A new chapel at Watra, in the other mission station was inaugurated on 14th May 2008 by the Bishop of Belgaum Most. Rev. Dr. Peter Machado.

Yet another newly constituted diocese that opened its doors to us was that of Vasai in Maharashtra. We may recall that Fr. Leander had been sent from the Old Goa monastery in 1643 to make a Carmelite foundation in Bassein. That project was realized when Fr. Dominic Vas inaugurated on 18 Sept. 2005, the new retreat house, DhyanaShram at a place called Rajodi, in the diocese of Vasai, which is the new name for Bassein.

In 2005 the Province agreed to serve the Mariapura parish dedicated to O. Lady of Mount Carmel in the archdiocese of Bengaluru. In May 2011, the parish was returned to the archdiocese

In the diocese of Karwar, on 16 Oct. 2005, the Chapel of St. Sebastian at Matadekeri in Honnavar - close to where we had acquired some land many years earlier, was entrusted to our Fathers, who, in 2004 had taken up residence there. The new monastery at Honnavar, to which we had been looking forward for several years, was finally realized on 14th April 2010, under the title, Stella Maris.

The fourth Institute of Spirituality, Ryshivana, was opened at Ranipura (Mangaluru) in 2005. In September 2007, it had the honour of hosting an International Carmelite Congress for Asia and the South Pacific.

In 2005, after more than a century, we renewed our presence in Pune. On 15th August 2010 the residence block cum Church at Talegaon, Pune was blessed by the Bishop of Pune, Rt. Rev. Thomas Dabre and inaugurated by the provincial, Fr. Archibald.

The tenth Provincial Chapter placed Fr. Archibald Gonsalves at the helm and for further consolidation of our communities, agreements have been signed with the bishops that make for relative stability and permanence. During the triennium efforts to expand the Carmelite presence in Canada, bore fruit with two new parishes, in the Archdiocese of Vancouver and the Diocese of Calgary, besides the Parish of Guardian Angels' which was already entrusted to the first friars of our Province who went as pioneers in this new region in 2003. The General Definitory juridically entrusted the Provinces of British Columbia and Alberta to the Karnataka-Goa Province on 4th May 2008 for the expansion of the Order. The Secular Carmel which began in 1993, by the friars of Western USA Province and later by those from Malta, is very vibrant. At present the communities which have grown to 6, are coordinated by friars of our Province. Towards the end of the triennium we have also accepted a Parish from the Carmelites of the Maltese Province in Eastern Canada, London - Ontario.

In the very vicinity of our mother-house in Mangaluru on 8th September 2009, Most. Rev. Dr. Aloysius Paul D'Souza, Bishop of Mangalore, laid the foundation stone for the future parish church at Bajjodi, Mangaluru, and with an agreement signed in 2011, it has been entrusted to the care of our Province

Another inauguration, in the Mangalore diocese, is that of a new quasi chapel which was opened at Koteswar on 30th January 2011.

In addition to the school at Ramnagar, in the Londa parish, new schools are coming up in Belur and Hoovina Hadagalli. A social welfare centre too was inaugurated at Kushalnagar on 2nd April 2011.

Meanwhile, our mission in Tanzania where we have 7 native priests and 8 professed brothers after so many years of toil and labour, has also celebrated its Silver Jubilee. We remember and thank the pioneers, Frs. Walter Lobo and Felix Moras, who landed there in 1983. The late Fr. Richard Castelino had Frs. Peter D'Sa, Marlon Rodrigues, Shabas Crasta and Raymond Santhanaz as his successors in the government of the mission. Our missionaries continue to evangelize through the two schools, Primary and Secondary and they have also started to conduct short three months Courses in Spirituality in English as well as in Swahili. The Carmelite Spirituality is diffused in the parishes entrusted to their care through units of Secular Carmel, Infant Jesus Novena, etc. The tireless efforts of the missionaries are highly appreciated by the Church in Tanzania. The Province decided to take up another parish in Italy with a view to supporting the mission.

Apart from the locations mentioned already, our friars render their services also in Italy (Rome, Empoli, Cenniaia and Genova), Austria, Prague (at the Infant Jesus Shrine), USA, Israel, Australia and Peru.

The number of Cloistered Carmels in our circumscription is ten: Mangaluru, Bengaluru, Chicalim (Goa), Mumbai (Andheri), Pune, Baroda, Mysuru (Bogadi), Raipur, Hassan and Bunda, the last of which is in our Tanzanian mission.

The Eleventh Provincial Chapter placed the steering wheel in the hands of Fr. Archibald Gonsalves for the second time. The long standing dream of acquiring some property for the Province in Canada was finally realised during the trienium thanks to the sustained interest and concern of Fr. Rudolf V. D'Souza.

A parish was accepted in the new diocese of Udupi at Kolalgiri. A foundation at Kadaganchi in the Diocese of Gulbarga was actualised. Two important events during the triennium were 'The Asian Carmelite Congress' in Bangalore and 'The Carmel Fest' in Xellim, bringing together all the candidates in formation. Three more local vocations ascended the altar of God in the Tanzanian Missions.

In the Twelfth Provincial Chapter held in April 2014, Fr. Charles Serrao was elected provincial.

This brief account of the history of the Province has high-lighted principally the foundations made during the past eleven triennia. It is not possible in a few pages to tell the entire story of work and toil, and painstaking endeavour, the suffering, the patience and the love of each and every member of the Province who has with good faith and good intentions, contributed towards the building up of the material constructions as well as the spiritual edifice of what is today called the Karnataka-Goa Province.

Fr. Paul D'Souza, OCD
(Pushpashrama, Mysuru)
